

Art Levinowitz

For President-Elect

Art Levinowitz has been involved in education for his entire professional life. He was a teacher for eight years, employed as an administrator for more than 25 years for the New Jersey State Department of Education, and has served on Upper Dublin School Board for 20 years, including five as president. For the past 10 years he also has served as the president of the joint operating committee of the Eastern Center for the Arts and Technology. He has experience serving PSBA as both a regional director and Section 8 advisor. Last year Art was elected PSBA vice president. In addition to that role, he currently serves on the PSBA Finance Committee and as a director for the Pennsylvania Public Education Foundation. In 2017, he participated and completed the Pennsylvania Education Policy Fellowship Program.

David Hein

For Vice President

David Hein is a two-term member of the Parkland School Board and its current vice-president. He also chairs the Personnel and Finance Committee and has served on the Academics, Arts and Athletics Committee. He serves on the joint operating committee of the Lehigh Career and Technical Institute and is its most recent treasurer. He has been an active member of PSBA since being elected to the Parkland School Board. He serves on the PSBA Audit Committee and the PSBA Legislative Advisory Committee. He is the legislative liaison for his school board and served on the PSBA Leadership Development Committee last year. David enjoys attending the annual PSBA conference and Delegate Assembly and has participated in several webinars and live training sessions.

Sabrina Backer

For Section 1 Advisor

Sabrina Backer has been active in public education since her children started elementary school. She began with the executive board of their school's parent/teacher organization, moved on to her local school board in 2015, and then served as Section 1 advisor, and on the Governing Board of PSBA in 2018. Since being elected to the Franklin Area School Board, she has served as PSBA liaison, and on their Hall of Fame, Personnel Operations, and Negotiations committees, chairing both the Personnel and Operations committees. Sabrina also has served on PSBA's Bylaws and Platform committees, the Pennsylvania Public Education Foundation, been a member of the Legislative Advisory Council and the chair of the Policy Committee. Sabrina attended Fayetteville State University and is the Chief Clerk/County Administrator for Venango County. She resides in Franklin with her husband Brian and their two children – Britton, a freshman at Penn State; and Cambree, a sophomore at Franklin Jr./Sr. High School.

Mark B. Miller

Mark B. Miller is completing his third term as an elected school director of the Centennial School District in Bucks County, PA. He is completing his first term as a trustee and has contributed more than a decade of service to PSBA. Mark has served as a member or officer of PSBA's Governing Board for seven years, during which time he's been a staunch public education advocate. His efforts earned numerous awards and acknowledgements, including citations from the PA House, PA Senate and Congress. Among his most prized recognition are the Allwein Society Legislative Advocacy Award (2014) and PSBA CEO's Distinguished Service Award (2018). Among Mark's other service, he is vice-chair of Middle Bucks Institute of Technology, co-chair of Keystone State Education Coalition and on the Easy Procure Board of Managers. Mark was the founding chairperson of EdPAC and a director of the Network for Public Education. His service also includes service to NSBA. Mark is a delegate to the Federal Relations Network since 2008 and has been a member or chair of several NSBA committees and task forces. Mark believes there is no higher service to Public Education than that of being an elected school director in the community which you reside.
